COACH, COMMUNITY BUILDER &
PREVIOUS CORPORATE LEADER

Kendra is the Head of Community for The Thread where she manages the operations of the Cohort and Alumnae experiences. From onboarding members, speakers, mentors and partners, her goal is to craft a meaningful and genuine experience for the community. Prior to The Thread, Kendra spent 12 years in the corporate setting with various roles in Human Resources. As an HR Leader she partnered with other executive leaders focusing on vision setting, talent development, employee fulfillment and other strategic initiatives. Kendra's strengths and passions are developing others, creating systems & processes and building authentic relationships. In 2023, she stepped into the coaching space after completing the Kansas Leadership Center's Coaching Intensive. Kendra lives in Wichita with her husband and their three children. Aside from The Thread, Kendra enjoys reading, spending time outside, watching sports & movies and building her health & wellness coaching business.
